

April 22, 2009

Circulation: 921,794

Must-try gourmet Italian food and wine

Mangia Mangia

Michele Thompson, MS

Whether you've traveled through Italy dining on authentic Italian meals that your memory can still taste or if you've had the pleasure of feasting at an Italian restaurant that made you feel like you were in the beloved country, making mouthwatering Italian meals at home can keep you connected to your best Italian food experiences. The key is finding gourmet Italian products made with the finest ingredients. Here are a few must-try Italian foods and wines that will help you relive your delicious Italian food memories as well as inspire you to create your own Italian meals.

Le Veneziane Spaghetti

Nothing says Italian like a steaming bowl of al dente pasta tossed with a flavorful sauce. A special treat for those with gluten-intolerance, Le Veneziane Spaghetti is made with cornmeal from the corn-producing region of Veneto, Italy. Not only is this delicious Italian staple gluten-free, it has an inviting vibrant golden color and cooks up like classic spaghetti made from wheat.

Available at DiPaloSelects.com (along with a full-range of other Italian specialty foods)

Price: $8.99 per pound

